

STARS OF LYRIC OPERA AT MILLENNIUM PARK

September 6, 2008

For the eighth time Lyric Opera of Chicago, as a gift to the City of Chicago, will present a special star-studded prelude to their regular season in Chicago's Millennium Park. This exciting concert will feature a spectacular selection of overtures, arias, and ensembles.

With the city's lights as a dramatic backdrop the Lyric's performance in Millennium Park is an annual favorite for the more sophisticated concert attendee.

Lyric's Music Director Sir Andrew Davis will lead the Lyric Opera Orchestra and an array of soloists including the star of Lyric's season opening night production, Elizabeth Futral.

The Jay Pritzker Pavilion in Millennium Park, with its open-air acoustical canopy, is among the most technologically advanced outdoor concert venues in the world, with digital innovations and enhanced sound, designed to create an acoustical environment that provides an unforgettable listening experience.
